

Skilled Rhinoplasty Surgeons in Seattle

Seattle is a well-known city of the world. Who hasn't heard of the romantic movie "Sleepless in Seattle" with Meg Ryan and Tom Hanks? What about Klark Kemp of the NBA Supersonics? Do you know that you can also find the largest air and space gallery in the world in Seattle? Yes, the one and only Museum of Flight. Furthermore, Seattle is also the home of grunge music and Skagit Tours where you can have a view of the breathtaking scenic splendor of the North Cascades. The place also gained a name in the coffee industry for having the most coffee consumption, which in turn aided famous coffee companies such as Starbucks Coffee, and Tully's Coffee, to get established in the market. These are just a few things that made Seattle a popular city. And adding to these, surgeons in Seattle are also making a name for themselves, especially in the field of Rhinoplasty. Let's get to know some of these surgeons with remarkable credentials attached to their name.

Curran Smith, M.D. He is a member of the faculty of the University of Washington, School of Medicine since 1973. He created a module which has been utilized by Washington, Alaska, Montana and Idaho. In 1978, he left the academe and pursued additional training in plastic surgery residency at Yale University. By 1980, he began his private practice together with the appointment as an Associate Professor of Surgery in the Division of Plastic Surgery. He is a huge opera fan and the likes of Puccini, Verdi and Wagner are some of his favorites. For those who want rhinoplasty in Seattle, you can reach Dr. Smith through (206) 682-8138 or visit his website at www.yournaturalbeauty.com. You can also pay him a visit at 1221 Madison Street, Suite 1102, Seattle, Washington.

Craig Jonov, M.D. An associate professor in the University of Washington, and the University of Pittsburgh, he has recently joined The Gallery of Cosmetic Surgery. Dr. Jonov is a diplomat of the American Board of Oral and Maxillofacial Surgery, a fellow in the American Association of Oral and Maxillofacial Surgeons, and member of the American Academy of Cosmetic Surgery. He got his Masters at the Medical College of Pennsylvania, and Doctorate at the University of Pittsburgh. Dr. Jonov had his residency training in general surgery at the Allegheny General Hospital. For those who want rhinoplasty in Seattle, Dr. Jonov's number is (425)775-3561 and (866)346-0000 or you can also visit his website at www.cosmeticsurgeryforyou.com. His clinic is located at 3500 188th Street, SW Suite 670, Lynnwood, Washington.

William Portuese, M.D. Current president of the Washington State Chapter of Facial Plastic Surgeons, Dr. Portuese is certified by the American Board of Facial Plastic and Reconstructive Surgery, and the American Board of Otolaryngology. He is also a clinical instructor in the department of Otolaryngology at the University of Washington, where he authored numerous publications in his field of study. In retrospect, he finished his internship and residency at Louisiana State University Medical Center. After that, Dr. Portuese had a one-year fellowship in Beverly Hills under Dr. Frank Kramer, an internationally-renowned facial plastic surgeon. For those who want Rhinoplasty in Seattle, Dr. Portuese can be contacted at (206)624-6200 or you can visit his website at www.seattlefacial.com. You can schedule a consultation as well in his clinic at 1101 Madison Street, Seattle, Washington. So if you are planning to have Rhinoplasty, or know someone who needs nose surgery, why not recommend one of these surgeons in Seattle. You will be amazed at how skilled they are. Do not trust just any doctor to perform your nose surgery so as to avoid any complications. You need to invest and look for one who knows what they are doing, and who has a proven track record in the field of Rhinoplasty.